& Delightful Entertalnment at Leader Hall. County News-Items Gathered in Manchester-Personal.

MANCHESTER BUREAU RICHMOND TIMES.

On yesterday afternoon at 6 o'clock Miss Anna Mutter Macon, daughter of Mr. Thomas J. and the late Mrs. Anna H. Macon, was married to Mr. Malcolm D. Hart, of Richmond. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. J. Clopton, rector of Meade-Memorial church, at the residence of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Colonel Clark, Eleventh and Bainbridge streets. On account of a recent bereavement in the family the affair was very quiet, only immediate relatives and a few intimate friends being present.

The bride, who is a very handsome and accomplished young lady, appeared to the best advantage, attired in white, with a bridal vell, carrying a bouquet of lilies of the valley and ferns. She was given away by her father, and Mr. Ray H. Childrey served as best man.

The couple took the 7:10 train last night for a northern tour, and on their return will reside in Hichmond, where the groom is connected with the Western Union Telis connected with the Western Union Telegraph Company.

To-might Mr. John Q. Adams and Miss Henrietta Williams will be united in marriage at the Presbyterian church at $2.50 P. M. Mr. and Mrs. Adams will receive their friends at their home, on Ninth street, after the ceremony.

Miss Lizzie Alien, one of Manchester's most highly respected ladies, is critically ill.

There was an exceedingly pleasing entertainment at Leader Hall last night.

Mrs. W. Carleton Adams, of New York, in her celebrated bird tenes, was the attraction, assisted by Mrs. Knowles, Miss Annie F. Adams, and Messrs. Clowes and Weistger. The following programme was redered:

An Interesting Meeting of the Association. Jamestown Improvements.

The Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities met yesterday at noo1. The meeting was held in the rooms on the second floor of the Virginia His torical Society building, which have recently been fitted up by the Association for the Presarvation of Virginia An-tiquities, assisted by the Colonial Dames and the Daughters of the American Revo-lution.

and the Daughters of the American Revolation.

Mrs. Joseph Bryan presided over the meeting. The first business was the discussion of plans for the entertainment which will be given the latter part of January. All arrangements were made, but the nature of the entertainment will not be made public just at present. The arsociation has decided to place a magnificent and permanent breakwater at Jamestown. At first it was their intention to place only a temporary one there.
This work will be under the supervision of Colonel Craighill. January the 4th is the date which has been chosen by the association for their tea. The invitation for this charming affair will be issued in the very near future.

After the transaction of some other rautine business the association adjourned.

Investigating the Post.

Investigating the Post.

On Monday General J. C. Lineham, of Penatook, N. H., and Colonel A. E. Sholes, of Macon, Ga., of the committee appointed by the Grand Encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic to investigate the charge that the Phil. Kearney Post had misapplied money contributed for decoration purposes, commenced their work at Wilkinson Hall.

A great deal of testimony was taken, the books and accounts of the post were examined, the receipts and expenditures of the Memorial Committee were investigated, an account of the purchase of the City Hall lot and payments thereon was presented, and the origin and history of the committee and its work were presented.

The committee reassembled yesterday morning at 10 o'clock and were in session about two hours.

A report will be made to the next Grand Encampment and it is believed it will result in a complete vindication of the post.

An interesting meeting was held yesterday at noon at the Virginia Home for Incurables, Explanatory remarks were made by Rev. Dr. M. D. Hoge, after which Rev. F. S. Stickney made the opening prayer. The ninetieth Psaim was read by Rabbi E. N. Calisch, after which Rev. Dr. Cooper read a hymn and made some interesting remarks. Others who took part in the meeting were: Rev. R. A. Goodwin and Rev. L. M. Omer.

The visitors inspected the Home, and many donations of provisions, furniture and merchandise were received. The public is asked to send donations when convenient to the Home, No. 1315 Ross street. Rev. W. J. Young, of Park-Place M. E. Charch, and Rev. J. K. Mason were expected to be present at the meeting, but were unavoidably detained.

TRUSTEE'S SALE OF THAT VALUABLE PROPERTY-KNOWN AS FINE CREEK MILLS, IN FOLDATAN COUNTY, VA., ONLY ONE MILE FROM LEE STATION, ON CHESAPEAKE AND OHIO RAILWAY.—By virtue of a deed of trust executed to the undersigned by R. L. Pierce and wife, date! December 8, 1808, and duly recorded in the County Court clerk's office of said county, in Deed Book Vol. 29, pages 1 to 4, and being required so to do, I will expose for sale at public auction, on the premises, on sale at public auction, on the premises, on SATURDAY, December 22, 1894, at 12 o'clock M., the following valuable REAL ESTATE, in the following order: First. The property known as Fine Creek Mills, one mile from Cheapeake and Ohlo railway the Statioa). This very desirable property contains 68 acres. The mill-house is a large and well-arranged three-story building, part store road part frame. It is both a lour and grist mill, supplied by a never-failing stream (Fine Creek). This mill enjoys the largest patronage for corn trade of any mill in the county, and is located at a most convenient point for custom. There is a large and well-arranged store-house on this property, which has always had a liberal trade. The dwelling is large, comfortable, and in good order, with all the usual out-houses, large and well-fixed stable, tobacco barns, black-smith and wheelwright shops, in fact, this property presents great advantages to a wide-awake, enterprising party. The neighborhood is as good as can be found anywhere in the State; convenient to churches, schools, and post-fice on the place. Now, here is an opportunity for some energetic party to secure a fine place to make money, as he can merchandize, have blacksmith and wheelwright shops, carry on milling and farming (the land is excellent). Second, Fifty acres adjoining the above, known as the Old Foundry Tract, on which there are the large stone buildings used many years ago by the Government. This property has line water-power, and would, for a small cost, be made one of the best places for manu-SATURDAY, December 22, 1894, timber of every kind very near the site. The water-power is unsurpassed.

Third. An undivided one-third interes in 150 acres land near Buckingham road and is a part of the Tower Hill Tract adjoining the lands of Mrs. Pleasants and als., and is the land formerly owner by Mrs. Mary A. Plerce. This valuable property should engage the attention of investors. For further particulars, &c. apply to the auctioneers. The first pleece—68 acres—with mill, store-house, to the one-sixth interest of Miss Mira Corr, and it may be she will consent to let her interest be sold on day of sale, of, which due notice will be given at sale.

sale, of, which due notice will be given at sale.

The deed requires all cash, but, by consent of parties holding a majority of the interest secured in said deed, the trustge is directed to sell this property on the following terms, to-wit: One-fourth cash; balance at one, two, and three years, for notes, 6 per cent. in terest added, secured by deed of trust, AUGUSTINE ROYALL, Trustee, Parties wishing to attend this sale from Richmond will leave on the 8.50 train, Chesapeake and Ohio railway, Eighthstreet depot, and returning, arrive in Richmond at 6 o'clock P. M. de16-6t.

20 feet, more or less, on the north side of Broad street, between First and Second streets, and running back about 37 feet, the said house being designated as 112 east Broad street. The improvements are new and modern, and should the fire of progression ever be kindled within the breasts of those who own the old-style houses, thereby causing them to pull down and erect modern ones in their stead, we feel assured that the difference now existing between the north and south side would become narrowed to a touch. We have had repeated requests from parties anxious to rent this property. We therefore have no hesitancy in inviting you to place your money in Broad-street property, be it on the north or south side.
